the earth is the lord s ps 24 1 god states that he is the rightful owner of the earth and everything in it god wants people to enjoy material things but god must be the centre of our lives christ s radical call to his followers includes the call to let him drive our economic and business life this means letting god s justice rule all our economic relationships treating people rightly a constant seeking of justice for especially the poor and needy

material blessings in part 1 andrew hartropp looks at how christ s followers are to do justice in our economic relationships as individuals as households in the workplace and as church communities then moving outward in concentric circles part 2 shows how jesus s disciples can do justice in and through secular institutions including companies and firms banks and other financial institutions then government institutions and then in the international global context the epilogue is on the glorious vision of god s everlasting kingdom which both drives us and also keeps our efforts now in proper perspective
